THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

YOUR COMMITTEE, in closing their labours for the past year, are highly gratified with the success which has attended their labours, and that they are enabled to report the continued prosperity of the St. George's Society. Their satisfaction, however, is mingled with sorrow at the remembrance of the loss the Society has sustained during the past summer. Most of you and very many of the citizens of Toronto, have to mourn the decease of our late respected President, Mr. George Bilton. He was one of the Society's oldest members, one whose untiring exertions materially contributed to its permanency and success, and was, in every sense, a kind friend, a good citizen, and a thorough benevolent Englishman. During our time, and so long as the Records last, his memory will be cherished and his name honoured by this Society of his Countrymen when they read of the good works done in his day.

At the Monthly Meeting in June last, the following resolution was moved, seconded and adopted, "That Master William George Bilton, eldest son of the late President be elected an Honorary Life Member in consideration of the valuable services rendered by his late father to this Society." At the same time the following address was read, unanimously adopted, ordered to be entered in the Minute Book, and a Copy engrossed on parchment for presentation to Mrs. Bilton.

"The President, Officers, and Members of the St. George's Society of Toronto, record with the deepest and sincerest sorrow the sad loss which the Society has suffered in the death of its valued and lamented President, George Bilton, Esq.

"Having assisted in the organization of the Society, he was one of the oldest as he was one of the most zealous and respected members, and to his excellent fidelity to its interests may chiefly be attributed the extended usefulness which has recently marked its character as a Charitable Institution.

"Due to the encouragement of his example and the vigour of his administration, the augmentation in the numbers of the Society, the liberality of its benevolent disbursements and the beneficial influence which it exercised during the year of his Presidency were alike without precedent in its annals.

"A true, warm-hearted, upright, and fearless Englishman, he was a type of all that is honorable and estimable in the nationality he represented, and in every relation of life illustrated and upheld its best characteristics.

"As such, he is now mourned by the Society which, whilst it would not rudely venture within the sacred sphere of domestic sorrow, desires to be permitted to give such expression to its own grief, as, although but feebly recording the affectionate regard in which its deceased President was held, may, in some measure, tend to comfort the widow and fatherless in their affliction, by the assurance, that in their bereavement they sorrow not alone, but others, his attached countrymen, mourn with them the loss of an estimable friend, a valuable citizen, and a charitable, just, and good man."

The demands upon the charitable fund during the past year have been very heavy, so that the Treasurer has seldom had a balance in hand. Your Committee would earnestly call upon the members to pay their subscriptions as early as possible, and by this means save the expense of collection, which is a very serious item of expenditure, and it will also enable our successors in office to relieve, immediately, many of our poorer fellow-countrymen, who, at this moment stand in need of assistance.

The emigration during the past year has fallen considerably below that of former years, so far it is satisfactory when we consider the scarcity of employment. The heavy drain upon our funds has arisen not so much from those who emigrated during the season of 1858, but principally from previous emigrants, many of whom arrived in 1857, sent out by the Wellington Fund and the Woolwich Emigration Society, and are still remaining in the City out of work, suffering from want and disease. Whatever may have been the motives of those Societies in shipping off to Canada their unemployed workmen, we know not; but we do know the consequences to have been misery and want to hundreds. The accounts these poor people have sent home will, we trust, prevent any more such ill-timed emigration schemes.

At the quarterly meeting in April, it was deemed advisable, considering the distress prevalent more or less amongst all classes of society, to dispense with the annual dinner on St. George's Day, and instead thereof, the members of the Society attended Divine Service at St. James' Cathedral. Your Committee are very much indebted to the Rev. Dr. Beaven, the Rev. T. S. Kennedy, Mr. Carter, and the members of the choir for their gratuitous services rendered on that occasion. Messrs. T. D. Harris and L. Moffat, Churchwardens, also kindly granted the free use of the Church as well as the gas used during the evenings the Choir were practising. A Collection was taken up on behalf of the Charitable Fund, realising the very handsome sum of $171.60 after defraying expenses of Printing and Advertising, &c.

At the quarterly meeting in July, your Committee recommended as a means of raising additional Funds to meet the pressing demands upon the Treasurer, that an Excursion should take place, and, this meeting the views of the members, a day was appointed, the 26th July, and arrangements were made to proceed to Queenston Heights. A large number of Englishmen with their families availed themselves of the opportunity thus afforded of visiting that celebrated locality, spending a very happy day, and returning in the evening well pleased with the Excursion. The profits arising, after paying all expenses, amounted to $38.62.

Your Committee would congratulate the Society on the success of their application to Parliament for an Act of Incorporation. The Bill was entrusted to our President, J. B. Robinson, Esq., M.P.P., and through his instrumentality the Bill passed both Houses without opposition, and without expense to the Society. In consequence of this Act, it will be necessary to revise the By-Laws, and the Vice President, Mr. Thomas Brown gave the necessary notice at the Quarterly meeting in October of his intention to move resolutions altering the Constitution and By-Laws that they may conform with the Act.

Your Committee having examined Mr. Brown's proposed alterations (a copy of which has been sent to every member of the Society) recommend their adoption.

Now that the Society is incorporated, thereby becoming one of the Permanent Institutions of the country, your Committee can with confidence invite such of you as are able to become Life Members. The Subscription is fixed at $20, and this amount is invested so that the interest alone is applicable to the ordinary expenditure. Every new Life Membership further adds to the permanency of the Society, and for this reason alone we hope many of you will become Life, instead of Ordinary, Members.

There have been 49 Members added to our list during the past year, making the total number in our books 487, but we regret to state that a great many have, by non-payment of their subscriptions, ceased to be Members. Your Committee would recommend their successors to revise the list, striking out (according to the By Laws) the name of every one who has no right to be classed as a Member.

Your Committee can refer with satisfaction to their distribution of Meat, Bread, Cheese, and Potatoes, to about one hundred and twenty poor English families on Christmas Eve, and if we reckon, men, women, and children, it was the means of furnishing a good Christmas dinner to upwards of four hundred and fifty persons. This was raised by subscription amongst the Members of this Society and Englishmen generally. One hundred and fifteen dollars were subscribed in Cash, and about seventy-five dollars' worth of Meat, &c. Every deserving applicant was relieved and after paying all expenses a balance of $13 was handed over to the Treasurer. The distribution took place at Mr. Henry Shaw's warehouse in Front St., and to him we owe our thanks for the use of his rooms on that occasion.

Your Committee, before closing their report, have to acknowledge their indebtedness to D. B. Read, Esq., ex-Mayor, who has, on several occasions, kindly granted passes to different parts of the Province to poor Englishmen when recommended by your Committee. We have also to thank

A. B. Hawke, Esq., Chief Emigration Agent, who has frequently forwarded poor emigrants to their destination on our application to him ; and to the several Railroad and Steamboat Companies who have, during the past year, charged only half-fare to those your Committee have recommended.

The Treasurer's Financial Statement is herewith submitted, by which it will be seen that a small balance is due him of One pound, Four shillings, and Eight pence. In addition to this, the Society is indebted to the extent of $178.78. There is, however, a large amount overdue by many of the Members, which, if paid, would liquidate the debt and leave a very considerable surplus.

The Society has a permanent investment of £146 5s. in the British American Insurance Company, and £45 in the Provincial Permanent Building Society, making a permanent fund of £191 5s., or seven hundred and ninety-five dollars.

All which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN BEVERLEY ROBINSON,

President.

Secretary.
